COLLEGE POLICIES

Academic Integrity Policy: Anne Arundel Community College, with a central mission of producing learning and a belief that individuals be given the opportunity to fully develop their potential, is committed to upholding rigorous and fair standards of student learning and achievement. Achieving successful student learning is dependent upon a dedication to academic integrity on the part of all members of the college community. Without academic integrity, students gain unfair advantage over others and impede their own development.

In support of this aim, Anne Arundel Community College requires all students to exhibit academic integrity in all their academic work. A culture of academic integrity, a unifying principle at AACC and all academic communities, is built upon respect for others' work, commitment to doing one's own work, and intolerance for academic dishonesty in all its forms. Students are responsible for reviewing and complying with the College's Academic Integrity Policy. A student found in violation of this policy shall be subject to appropriate sanctions, up to and including expulsion from the College, in accordance with the Resolving Allegations of Academic Misconduct Procedure and the Academic Misconduct Hearing Procedure. For more information, visit the Academic Integrity Policy and AACC Policies webpage for the Academic Integrity Procedures.

Student Conduct Policy: Students shall at all times conduct themselves in a manner that demonstrates mutual respect and courtesy, displays appropriate standards of behavior, and refrains from any actions or in actions that impinge on the rights of others or disrupt the teaching and/or learning process or the operations of the college. A student found in violation of this policy or any other College policy shall be subject to appropriate sanctions in accordance with the student conduct procedures. The full text of the policy is available on the AACC website (<https://www.aacc.edu/policies/>) and in the Student Handbook and College catalog.

Acceptable Use of Information Technology Resources Policy: This policy governs the acceptable use of the college information resources by anyone. This policy applies to students enrolled in this course at any time they are using college resources. The goal of the usage policy is to encourage an environment of learning in which all students can interact in an open, legal, and ethical manner. The full text of the policy is available on the AACC Acceptable Use of Technology Resources Policy webpage.

Notice of Nondiscrimination: The college prohibits all types of discrimination including, but not limited to, race – including hair texture and hairstyle – color, religion or creed, ancestry or national origin, sex, age, marital status, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, citizenship, and genetic information. Complaints of discrimination shall be reported to the college’s chief compliance and fair practices officer. For information regarding the college’s compliance and complaints concerning discrimination, contact the chief compliance and fair practices officer and Title IX coordinator at complianceofficer@aacc.edu or 410-777-1239, or call Maryland Relay at 711.

Americans with Disabilities Act Policy: Anne Arundel Community College prohibits all types of discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, and retaliation on the basis of race, including hair style and hair texture, color, religion or creed, ancestry or national origin, sex, age, marital status, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, citizenship, and genetic information. To file a complaint of discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, or retaliation, please contact the chief compliance and fair practices officer/Title IX coordinator at 410-777-1239 or complianceofficer@aacc.edu. Students who need a reasonable accommodation should contact Disability Support Services at DSS@aacc.edu or 410-777-1411. Requests for most accommodations must be made at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to the event or activity; however, requests for sign language interpreters, live captioning, alternate format books, or assistive technology need to be submitted at least thirty (30) days prior to the event or activity.

Religious Accommodations Policy: Anne Arundel Community College prohibits discrimination, harassment, and retaliation on the basis of religion. The purpose of this Religious Accommodations Policy is to describe the rights of Employees and Students to request and receive Religious Accommodations in accordance with the College’s policies and relevant laws and regulations regarding Religious Beliefs. For more information, review the Religious Accommodations Policy webpage. Also, review the Student Religious Accommodations Procedure webpage.

Covid Statement: While AACC does not require masking or vaccines, as members of a college community, we ask that all faculty, staff, and students take reasonable precautions to prevent transmissible illnesses like COVID-19. We encourage anyone in the college community to stay home and seek treatment if they are ill.
